Introducing The James Cancer Diagnostic Center

At The James, we understand that cancer is a complex disease that when detected early has more opportunities for successful treatment and cure. That's why we have opened The James Cancer Diagnostic Center. Our experts provide patients who may have cancer with direct, expedited access to diagnostic testing. The center offers a first step in determining each patient's specific type of cancer delivered by the experts who study and treat cancer every day.

To make a same-day or next-day appointment, visit cancer.osu.edu/diagnosticcenter or call 800-293-5066.

BUCKEYES ON THE FRONT LINES

CAIT CRAFT

Cait Craft was one of the faces of the Ohio State women’s basketball program both on and off the court from 2013-16. Now, she is making an impression as a Neonatal Nurse Practitioner at Riverside Methodist Hospital.

Craft played in a total of 116 games and started every game over her final three seasons. She was one of the team’s best defenders and would typically draw the opposition’s best player. She made 135 career three-pointers and had 142 steals.

The Findlay, Ohio native may have had just as big of an impact off the court. She was the team’s face in the community. Whether it was interacting with fans after games or helping young kids at post-game clinics, Craft’s enthusiasm drew a crowd. She was also one of the athletic department’s leaders in the Buckeye’s Care program. Craft was also a three-time Academic All-Big Ten honoree and a four-time OSU Scholar-Athlete.

Craft graduated with her degree in human nutrition and a minor in business. She is currently in the second half of a Master’s program to receive her MSN for a neonatal nurse practitioner.

An opportunity to help others is Craft’s driving force
"My experience with athletics has helped me in all areas of my life. It has helped shape me into someone who can handle adversity without wavering, and who can put aside my needs for others. It has also given me the biggest support network. I have had so many old teammates/coaches/people from my time at Ohio State reach out to me to let me know they're thinking of me. And that is the best feeling ... to know you have so many people in your corner, even after your time on the court is over. Remembering how lucky I am to be given the opportunity to help other people, especially during a stressful time full of the unknown, is easily my biggest driving force. God has given me the desire and ability to effectively do my job, and make a difference in so many lives, and I just feel very blessed to be able to do so."

What has this pandemic been like for you?

"This pandemic has had its ups and downs for me. While it can be taxing, I find peace in that mostly everyone I love and care for has the ability to stay at home, without having to put themselves at risk at their jobs. It's easier to go to the hospital to do my job, knowing that my people are safe at home and I have to worry much less about them."

What encouraging words would you say to others on the front lines?

"I know this is an unprecedented time for all of us but keep fighting and pushing through. We have the chance to make a difference in so many lives, and the opportunity to care for those affected by this pandemic. We have the abilities to allow someone the chance to see their loved ones again, and we cannot be replaced. Be prideful in the work we are doing and know it's making the biggest difference in people's' lives."

Powered by passion.

Passion: It's not merely the spark that lights the flame — it's also the fuel that feeds the fire. Passion is at the very heart of motivation, while a challenging spirit fosters innovation. At Honda, we believe both are necessary for a team to succeed. That's why, for more than 40 years, we've been proud to support those who lead with determination, who view challenges as opportunities and who follow their passions.
